Chapter 1 by tiltedgypz

When I left my world behind, seeking knowledge, gaining reason and understanding, it was difficult, this way of schooling myself in the real ways of my heroes and idols. Training to be an intrapreneur myself, was a long and hard road, waling it alone, can be heart shattering, but it can also be very interesting and rewarding, guiding my steps carefully thru the piles of rotten junk, that trends, not trends, they mean compiles more trash heaps, lying around the internet, in piles of junk being sifted thru for reading , it's all wrong, but still it's right,
